DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 61 and 63 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Toon et al (US 5,195,583).

The swellable elastomeric material coupled to the exterior of the tubular member is met by a body 23 of expandable packer material which occupies the annular 25 between the tubular 3 and the wellbore 2 (see Fig. 1). The packer material comprises bentonite which is elastically expandable or swellable upon contact with water which is injected through passage 21. The radial passage of the tubular member is met by Fig. 6, where a piston 56 is located.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 62 and 64 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claims 1-60 are allowed.

Art Unit: 3672

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Abe, Williams, Colangelo and Ishido et al all show tubular sealing and methods.
